They were all landed near the Dry Dock, all the massengers represent the present schore. They were all landed near the Dry Dock, and though all the passengers regretted the necessity of such a detention, they yet warmly applicable!

THE POWDER ORDINANCE .- At the late session an ordinance was passed prohibiting the storage of powder below Sixty-sixth-street. The clork being suspicious of the bill stepped over to the Bank and inquired of the Cashier, who pronounced it genume. The change was a cordingly given her, and she took the purchased shawl, and had proceeded as far as the door, when she stepped back and remarked that she thought she had not better take it until she had consulted her husband. The $1,000 bill was then handed her, and she returned the shawl and the change she had received, and left the store. Presently she came back and said she had concluded to take it, and laying down a $1,000 note, received again her change, took the Cashimere under her arm and disappeared. After the lady had gone, it was discovered that she had changed the bill, and in place of the genuine note had put off upon the clerk a counterfeit upon the same bank, leaving Mr. Stewart minus a valuable shawl and six hundred dollars in money.

The owners of property and residents on Atlantic-st. have long complained of the annoyance caused by the use of steam on the Long Island Railroad, and presented petitions to the Common Council to prohibit the running of locomotives within the City limits. Resolved, That if the Assembly concur, that all bills, revolutions, motions or other acts that passed by the vote of said Scholovamaker, or the validity depended upon his presence are, in the spanion of this Legislature, and and void.

Mr. Johnson opposed a motion to print. This question had been fully adjudicated and settled by the action of the Senate. The Senate is declared by the constitution to be the sole judge of the graphicalthe action of the Senate. The Senate is declared by the constitution to be the sole judge of the qualifications of its members. If it was intended by this and kindred movements to throw such business in the Senate as to elongate this session beyond what the people desire, he should be compelled to vote against the printing.

Mr. Carroll contended that the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States, one of the political friends of Mr. Schoonnaker, completely settled the case, and he was surprised to find that gentleman maintaining his seat after such opinion.

Mr. Gendes urged that the proposition was only thrown forward to make a little dust and create a new issue. This Session had been called to finish the proceedings of the last Session, when by an explosion worse than that of the Peacemaker it killed 12 men and scared one. It was a chaptrap resolution, and should be treated as such.

Mr. Schoonnaker argued that the opinion of the Attorney General was not in conflict with the position heretofore taken by the Senate. The whole question turned upon the acceptance. He had taken his position, and should not be driven from it. He left the decision of the question with the majority of the Senate.

Mr. Dear inquired if the gentleman had exercised decision of the question with the majority of the Senate.

Mr. Darr inquired if the gentleman had exercised the Franking Privilege.

Mr. Schoemakar said he had not.

Mr. Carroll asked whether the majority intended by denying the printing to suppress the facts.

Mr. Coop presented the fact that the gentleman from the Xlith, (Mr. Caroll,) had made, during the last days of the last session, one of his strong points that there were twenty members of the Senate left, after the resignation of the twelve, competent to passbills by a three-fifths vote, only one of whom was the Senate for the Xth, whose seat is now disjunced. The Senate land the whole subject on the table.

The Governor's Message was then received and read.

On motion of Mr. Brandseth five times the usual umber was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Coek moved the appointment of the Standing ommittee of the Senate.

The Clerk then read the Governor's Proclamation calling the Extra Session. A quotum was in attend-

Mr. O. Allen offered a resolution that the organization of the House be continued as it now existed.

Mr. A. A. Thomsesox hoped the resolution would not be adopted, as we had met as a new body should commence anew, and before any proceedings could be had there must be a new Speaker elected, who should be allowed to appoint his own committees. It was due the dignity of the House, and the members here assembled. He had no objection to the election of Mr. Vannum, who had been selected by the cancus. He was a "Union" man, and for that reason there was some hopes for the safety of the country. He hoped the resolution would not prevail, and he called the ayes and mays. Death caused by an Overdose of Opton.—The Coroner was called yesterday morning to hold an inquest at No. 134 Third-st. upon the body of Mrs. Margaret De Mel, a native of France, 62 years of age, whose death was caused by an overdose of opion. The hosbind of deceased testified before the Jury, that his wife was in the habit of procuring medicine from an apothecary in the neighborhood, which she took to cure some disease arising from the heat of the weather. On Monday she procured some opioin, and after taking a portion of it, fell askeep and died in the course of the night. A post mortein examination of the holy was made by Dr. E. C. Franklyn, and his testimony corroborates this statement as to the cause of death. The Jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the fact as above stated. DEATH CAUSED BY AN OVERDOSE OF OPI-

Disobeying Subpana.-Horace H. Day

Disobeying Subpana.—Horace H. Day at Sut of i baries Goodpear.—Wm. 8. Humphrey was brought before Judge Betts on an attachment for disobeying a subpana requiring him, in the above case, to appear and give testimony before Joseph Bridgham, Esq. a Commissioner of the Court.

Exception was taken by Mr. Staples to the attachment, because the suit was pending in the Massachuseits District, and was to be tried at Boston, and that the proper course to take the testimony of the witness was not de bene ease, but by commission, so that the testimony could be at the commission, so that the testimony could be at the commission of the Judiciary act of 1789 gives authority to the Court to compel witnesses to attend before a Commissioner for examination de bene ease, in the same manner as to examination de bene esse, in the same manner as to testify in Court. The proceedings in this case have been regular, and conformable to the statute. been regular, and conformable to the statute.

The court suggested that the statute does not apply to witnesses casually here, although found more than a hundred onles from the place of trial, unless they were about going to sea, or were aged or infirm.

An affidavit was made, showing that the witness resides in Massachusetts, within 50 miles of Boston, and is here transiently on business, &c. Mr. Gifford, for plaintiff, claimed the right to file interrogatories, and have the witness subjected to examination upon them. Order that the affidavit be filed, and the wit-ness discharged from the attachment. Attempt at Revolt.—John Parker, George As wallry, Andrew Rid and Wm. Brompton were arraigned on an indictment for endeavoring to make a revolt on board the sinp Baltimore. They plead not guilty.

Before Judge Mason.

Thomas Cottrell agt. Rebecca Brock, executric, &c.—It was said that the late John Brock, whose splendid jewelry store, 72 Chathamest attracted much attention from the passers by, previous to 1829 was a clerk and manager in the establishment of miamidf in London—that his name was John J. tracted much attention from the passers by, previous to 1829 was a clerk and manager in the establishment of plaintiff in London—that his name was John J. Flower, and that during the absence of plaintiff from London Mr Flower left, being indsbtsed for monies he had received as clerk, &c. £1,000—that he came to New-York, assumed the name of Brock, and carried on business as a jeweller in Chatham-st. from 1829 to the period of his death, which was in 1848—that he left upward of $30,000 worth of property, which ke devised by will (we believe under the name of Flower) to his widow, the defendant—(they had no children.) The present suit is to recover of the estato the £1,000 so due to plaintiff, with interest, amounting in all to upward of $10,900.

In defense, the statute of limitation is set up.
It appeared that Mr. B. under the name of Flower, wrote to Mr. Cottrell in 1850, stating that he had opened a jewelry store in New-York, and as soon as he got rich enough he would pay him what he owed him, which could not be over £1,000 (it was alleved to have been more, but that was all for which plaintiff claimed). It was also shown that no person except his wife and sister-in-law knew of his name being Flower.

The Chief of Police was called in relation to deligence on the part of plaintiff. He said that if Mr. Cottrell had sent to him a description of Mr. Brock, gence on the part of plaintiff. He said that if Mr. Cottrell had sent to him a description of Mr. Brock, Cottrell had sent to him a description of Mr. Brock, he could have found him out.

The Court charged that if a party comes openly and publicly into this State, and remains in it six years, the statute of limitations will apply—but it must be so open and notorious, that a creditor, with ordinary diligence, could have served process upon him, and the question for the Jury is, whether deceased came and remained in the State in such a way, and under such circumstances, that a creditor, as said, with ordinary diligence, might have found him. It is not a case where extraordinary diligence on the part of a creditor would be nocessary, as in a criminal soit. If the creditor could so have found him, with ordinary diligence, the verific must be for him, with ordinary diligence, the verdict must be for defendant, otherwise for pinintiff. Sealed verdict this forenoon.

Giles J. Hillyer agt. Thomas Carnley, sheriff—Edward C. Lockwood of Myrtle-avenue, Brooklyn, being indebted to plaintiff, made an assignment to him of all his stock, Mr. H. to be paid and the balance to be shared pro rata among the other creditors. Plaintiff took the goods to his store in this city with a view to the assignment, and the balance was levized upon, in a few weeks afterward, at the suit of another creditor. The action is for the alleged invalid levy. Verdict for plaintiff, $196.73.

The money was taken from Mr. Tucker's vest pocket while he was in the bath-room of the Hotel on the morning of the 1eth of April. Another Grand Larceny. - A man Another Grand Larceny.—A man named John Whitney was tried on an indictment charging him with stealing on the 25th of July last, about $3.00 worth of brass castings and patterns from Mr. Isaac Halloway, iron and brass worker, in Thirty-eighth-st. near Fourth-av. The accused was employed by Mr. H. in his foundry, and had a large amount of stock entrusted to him. Mr. H. missed at varioustimes a number of brass cocks, brackets &c. He therefore discharged all the hands—subsequently the accused set up business for himself, and Mr. H. became suspicious that some of the brass work found in the new shop was his property. Whitney was therefore arrested and indicted. The jury, after being out a long time, could not agree upon a verdict and were discharged.
